My therapeutic orientation can be described as: (e.g., traditional, behavior modification, biblical, etc...please elaborate)

Traditional, Solution-Focused Brief Therapy, Reality Therapy, CBT. I spend time sharing the importance of taking personal responsibility, goal-setting, etc.

My greatest therapeutic strength is: establishing rapport with children and families, use of resources.

I am married . If married currently, is this your first marriage? Yes.
How long have you been married to your current spouse? 30 years.

I have children of my own. Yes. Their ages are: 24 and 27. They are emancipated. Older one is married, younger one will be in August '09, lives at home until then.

I have registered with www.rosemond.com because... I have found John's resources to be of great value since 1990. Much of the success and enjoyment we've had in raising our own children are due to the beliefs I've come to understand from reading most of John's books, magazines, and articles. His resources are the most-used ones I have in both offices.

My general feelings about John Rosemond's parenting and family philosophy: Thanks for the encouragement and confidence that comes from realizing our role as parents as shared in such a simple, straightforward approach. There is only one John Rosemond... may his tribe increase!
